Joe Benz Stages Comeback American League Statistics on Griffmen in First Game. Gallia Wild in Second.

Chicago, Ilia, July 18.—By winning both games of another double-header against Washington today the White Sox now have such a firm hold on first place in the American League race that they feel absolutely no concern over the fact that the Boston Red Sox are to invade Comiskey Park tomorrow. The scores today were 4 to 0, and 7 to 4.

The big feature of the misty after-

Red Sox are to invade Comiskey Park tomorrow. The scores today were 4 to 0, and 7 to 4.

The big feature of the misty aftermoon was the "come back" of Joe Beng, Joe has been such an in-andouter this season that some of his friends were desparing of his future, but Joe went to the slab in the first game today and while 10,000 persons held their breath in anxious suspense, he waded through nine innings and held the Senators to three hits and never allowed them to get near the home plate.

Joe looked much as he did in the past when the old spitter was breaking properly. There was not a time when the back of his neck turned red with distress nor did he even once go into the dirt with his hands as has been his custom in the past when a lot of guys started hitting or walking to first base. Joe was smiling all through the game this time and made a lot of people glad when he walked off the field at the end of the ninth with a clean cut victory to his credit. Folks cheered and applauded, and Joe had to raise his cap in recognition. Joe had almost forgotten how to doff the old cap, but if he pitches more games as stylishly as he did yesterday he will be doffing his cap to the ladies and gentlemen continually. Joe was opposed by Harry Harper, the young southpaw who has caused the Sox much trouble.

NOTES OF THE GAME. The crucial series with the Bos ton Red Sox begins tomorrow. Only one game this time. The definition of crucial is "supremely critical." The Sox now have a margin of two and one-half games of a lead over Boston and five games are to be fought out in this series, one post-poned game of the last visit of Boston being on tap for Monday which is an open date in the schedule of both teams.

ba's today, being still lame from being hit on the foot by one of Walter Johnson's curves of the day before. There is a possibility, however, that he will be sufficiently recovered to be at third base today. MccMullin handled the third base job today.
Danforth seemed to lose control of the ball after pitching seven innings of the second game. He began the eighth by walking the first tw and when he had served two wide ones to the third batter he was yank-ed and Russell summoned. One of Chicago's loyal White Sox rooters but one who has little confidence in the team, predicted tonight that Boston will win four of the five games of this series. He is quite a baseball expert, too, so now we will see what this expert stuff is worth. T. N. B.

The H. R. K. Returns.

Frank Baker, of New York and Trappe, fought his way into the 300 class early this week for the first time since he surrendered or swapped the bat fo the hoe back in 1914. Last season Baker was unable to reach yout of focus. But as the rumor went around that the once eminent Home Run King had abdicated for good, the Trappe Terror started back for his own. In the lant five weeks he has batted well over 400—up to the tops wark of his best years and a trifle beyond.
